Some services will be provided by an external provider that Sequel that Sequel currently has a contractual agreement with.

The cost of services may vary, depending on the details of the service provided. Costs may also vary between the providers.

Self-managed consumers who identify their preferred external providers can do so, provided a contractual agreement is established and maintained with Sequel.

Sequel will pass the cost of the service directly to the consumers as invoiced by the external providers. Sequel does not apply additional charges in the form of GST or surcharges.
